

The Central Florida Autism Institute, Inc. is pleased to announce this summer's camp options! We will be collaborating again with St. David's Episcopal Church to offer additional inclusive camp opportunities. We will also be collaborating with Explorations V Children's Museum to offer inclusive camp opportunities. We have our teen camp with peer mentors again! Finally, we have one week of therapeutic camp scheduled in June and are in the process of planning additional weeks in July and August. Applications are posted on-line and can be printed off at www.cfaii.org/camp. Please review camp descriptions and requirements on line to determine which may be best suitable for your child. If you have any questions please call us at 816-5886. Space is limited. CFAll is pleased to announce the availability of eight camp sponsorships this year (6 available for elementary age ...2 per week and 2 available for teen week)! Camp sponsorships are on a first come first serve basis and do not include the $25.00 registration fee. There is a limit of 1 sponsorship per family. Financial assistance is also available to those who qualify. Fee reduction applications can be provided per request. Registration fees for families with multiple campers will be waived after the first registration.

For those interested in summer camp again this year mail in your completed application with the $25.00 non-refundable registration fee (made out to CFAll- which can be applied towards full camp payment) to our new offices at:
