April	Event	Location
April 21, 2009 9 – 11:00 a.m.	Parent Advisory Meeting for Students with Disabilities	School Board Auditorium – District Office, Bartow
May
Monday, May 11, 2009 2 sessions: 9-11 a.m. & 6-8 p.m.	What is Dyslexia? What can a parent or educator do to address this learning difference? What works? Do people with dyslexia really see things backward? This workshop, aimed at demystifying dyslexia, will provide parents with basic information and the latest research about this learning difference. Participants will have an opportunity to make and take learning tools that will assist in addressing the needs of their child. Specific resources, provided during the course of the workshop, will give participants a direction to go in learning more and becoming a better advocate for their child’s learning. Presenter: Lou Ann Bigsby, Reading Coach, Polk County Schools	Bartow Air Base (Highway 17), School Board Building, Wright Brothers Room Cancelled until further notice Email: jolene.ahlschwede@polk-fl.net to register
