

The Roberts Center for Learning and Literacy

Seeking Struggling Readers

“Making an impact on learning differences.”

Tutoring to be delivered will be based on Orton-Gillingham practices and the National Reading Panel Components for Reading

Tutoring:
The Roberts Center for Learning and Literacy

Assessment and screening to determine student needs will be conducted upon application and acceptance.

All tutors are experienced in tutoring reading and are trained and certified educators.

Dyslexia diagnosis not necessary for tutoring.

The Roberts Center for Learning and Literacy

111 Lake Hollingsworth Drive
Lakeland, Florida 33805

Phone: 863.680.3019
Fax: 863.680.4102

E-mail: lbigsby@flsouthern.edu

The Roberts Center for Learning and Literacy of Florida Southern College, Lakeland, Florida will open a reading clinic in February 2009 for the purpose of addressing language and learning differences in struggling readers. The clinic will be housed in the Education Department of Edge Hall on the college campus.

Tutoring sessions will be conducted Monday-Thursday from 3:30-7:30 pm. Cost of tutoring: $30.00 per hour. Parents or guardians of students that are struggling in reading may call the Roberts Center for Learning and Literacy to obtain further details.

Information relating to the clinic can also be found on the website:

<http://www.flsouthern.edu/robertscenter/index.html>

